Interest

Code of integrity-

1. All the officers or employees of the procuring entity shall, -
 - 1.1. Maintain an unimpeachable standard of integrity both inside and outside their office.
 - 1.2. Act in accordance with the Provisions of the Act, these rules, guidelines issued under the Act and instructions;
 - 1.3. Not allow any bidders to have access to information on a particular procurement, before such information is available to the public at large;
 - 1.4. Not intentionally use unnecessarily restrictive or "tailored" specifications, terms of reference or statements of work that can discourage competition;
 - 1.5. Not solicit or accept any bribe, reward or gift or any material benefit of any directly or indirectly promise of future employment from anyone, who has sought or is seeking procurement from the procuring entity;
 - 1.6. Not have a financial interest in any bidder(s) responding to a procuring entity's bidding process and any person having financial interest in any bidder shall not participate in that procurement process;
 - 1.7. Not disclose proprietary and source selection information, directly or indirectly, to any person other than a person authorized to receive such information;
 - 1.8. Treat all bidders in a fair and equitable manner in line with the principle of fairness, integrity and transparency in the procurement process;
2. Any person participating in procurement process shall: -
 - 2.1. Not offer any bribe, reward or gift or any material benefit either directly or indirectly in exchange for an unfair advantage in procurement process or to otherwise influence the procurement process;
 - 2.2. Not misrepresent or omit information that misleads or attempts to mislead so as to obtain a financial or other benefit or avoid an obligation;
 - 2.3. Not indulge in any collusion, bid rigging or anticompetitive behavior to impair the transparency, fairness and progress of the procurement process;
 - 2.4. Not misuse any information shared between the procuring entity and the bidders with intent to gain unfair advantage in the procurement process;
 - 2.5. Not indulge in any coercion including impairing or harming or threatening to do the same, directly or indirectly, to any party or to its property to influence the procurement process;
 - 2.6. Not obstruct any investigation or audit of a procurement process;
 - 2.7. Disclose conflict of interest, if any; and
 - 2.8. Disclose any previous transgressions with any entity in India or any other country during the last three years or any debarment by any other procuring entity.

Conflict of Interest: -

1. A conflict of interest for procuring entity or its personnel and bidders is considered to be a situation in which a party has interests that could promptly influence that party's performance of official duties or responsibilities, contractual obligations, or compliance with applicable laws and regulations.
2. The situations in which a procuring entity or its personnel may be considered to be in conflict of interest includes, but not limited to, following: -
 - 2.1. A conflict of interest occurs when procuring entity's personnel's private interests, such as outside professional or other relationships or personal financial assets, interfere or appear to

- interfere with the proper performance of its professional functions or obligations as a procurement official.
- 2.2. Within the procurement environment, a conflict of interest may arise in connection with such private interests as personal investments and assets, political or other outside activities and affiliations while in the service of the procuring entity, employment after retirement from the procuring entity's service or the receipt of a gift that may place the procuring entity's personnel in a position of obligation.
- 2.3. A conflict of interest also includes the use of procuring entity's assets, including human, financial and material assets, or the use of procuring entity's office or knowledge gained from official functions for private gain or to prejudice the position of someone procuring entity's personnel does not favor.

Bid Form 10 - Annexure – E : Additional Conditions of Contract

1. Correction of arithmetical errors

Provided that a Financial Bid is substantially responsive, the procuring Entity will correct arithmetical errors during evaluation of Financial Bids on the following basis:

- i. If there is a discrepancy between the unit price and the total price that is obtained by multiplying the unit price and quantity, the unit price shall prevail and the total price shall be corrected, unless in the opinion of the Procuring Entity there is an obvious misplacement of the decimal point in the unit price, in which case the total price as quoted shall govern and the unit price shall be corrected;
- ii. If there is an error in a total corresponding to the addition or subtraction of subtotals, the subtotals shall prevail and the total shall be corrected; and
- iii. If there is a discrepancy between words and figures, the amount in words shall prevail, unless the amount expressed in words is related to an arithmetic error, in which case the amount in figures shall prevail subject to (i) and (ii) above.

If the Bidder that submitted the lowest evaluated Bid does not accept the correction of errors, its Bid shall be disqualified and its Bid Security shall be forfeited or its Bid Securing Declaration shall be executed.

2. Procuring Entity's Right to Vary Quantities

- (i) At the time of award of contract, the quantity of Human Resource, works or services originally specified in the Bidding Document may be increased or decreased by a specified percentage, but such increase or decrease shall not exceed twenty percent, of the quantity specified in the Bidding Document. It shall be without any change in the unit prices or other terms and conditions of the Bid and the conditions of contract.
- (ii) If the Procuring Entity does not procure any subject matter of procurement or procures less than the quantity specified in the Bidding Document due to change in circumstances, the Bidder shall not be entitled for any claim or compensation except otherwise provided in the Conditions of Contract.
- (iii) In case of procurement of Human Resource, additional quantity may be procured by placing a repeat order on the rates and conditions of the original order. However, the additional quantity shall not be more than 25% of the value of Human Resource of the original contract and shall be within one month from the date of expiry of last Services. If the Service Provider to do so, the Procuring Entity shall be free to arrange for the balance supply / hiring by limited Bidding or otherwise and the extra cost incurred shall be recovered from the Service Provider.
